

Life-long horseman Colin MacNair was raised on a 40 acre farm just outside Raleigh, NC. He has been a real estate broker for 40 years, after attending UNC - Chapel Hill. His understanding of the needs of horse people, and extensive knowledge of central North Carolina- the soils, communities, equine organizations, schools, lenders, etc., make him the singularly most-qualified agent to market your horse farm or to help you find the perfect one for your needs. Whether you need a turn-key mini-farm ready to move in, or would rather find the perfect tract of land to build your dream farm, Colin can find what you need, and most important, guide you through the process of making the deal work.
